WE are very much gratified to learn that the affairs of Chrisman, Stewart & Co, have been settled in a way entirely satisfacty to the creditors of the firm, who lese not more than ten cents on the Credit Mobilier-Contested Seats dollar. The promptness and directness of this settlement is what we had a right to expect from a house that stood as high as the highest until the day when its fallure was announced. We congratulate our friends and their creditors The Poland Committee's Reporton the result of a conference, the dispatch of which is a sign that our people are beginning to realize that time is money, and good sense superior to vind'e live lausuits.

The Credit Mobilier Report.

Washington, February 21.—The Senate Credit Mobilier Committee held a secret session to-day, in which they examined the evidence taken by the Poland Committee, with the view of making up their report. Nearly all the evidence is in, and the committee will probably present their report about the middle of next week. John B. Alley will be examined to-morrow in relation to those, if there were any such, to whom belonged the wrongs. After further discussion the amendment was rejected. Subsequently, however, the amendment was adopted in a modified form.
